FINANCES and MARKETS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (Wall Street).
—To find a parallel for today's sluggish and meaningless market it is necessary to go back almost six months to September of last year.
Dealings barely aggregating 300,000 shares, and these consisted largely of professional operations in speculative issues whose intrinsic worth remains to be established.
The hollow character of the trading may be gauged from the fact that

MUNICIPAL LIGHTING SYSTEM
C. R. Finch and J. H. Daniels, members of the town council, recently appointed on a committee to investigate the matter of Tempe owning and operating its own electric lighting system, paid a visit to Glendale yesterday, where the municipal plan has held sway for the past two years. Both of the aldermen feel confident from the investigations they have made and the data they have collected, that Tempe could manage its own system at much less expense and they well substantiated their beliefs in a comparison of figures at Glendale yesterday. It is their intention to avail themselves of all the data possible and to tender it in the form of a report at the next council session.

TRADING IN ANGLO-FRENCH is at
